

Protection Order Transfer from District and Municipal Courts

Use this packet if:

- You are a party with a protection order in District or Municipal Court that may need to be transferred in order to renew, modify, or terminate. The information in this packet is NOT intended to be legal advice.

- Jurisdiction:

The superior and district courts have jurisdiction over domestic violence protection order proceedings, sexual assault protection order proceedings, stalking protection order proceedings, and antiharassment protection order proceedings. Municipal court cases may be transferred to Superior Court for any renewals, modifications, or requests to terminate civil orders for protection (RCWs > Title 7 > Chapter 7.105 > Section 7.105.050).

- Transfer from District Court or Municipal:

An order transferring the case to Superior Court and setting the hearing (schedule on Thursdays at 8:30am) must be signed by the originating court. The originating court must send certified copies of the court file by mail or email. At this time a new case number will be assigned. The motion to renew, modify, or terminate must be filed at the clerks' office. Please refer to protection order - Search | WashingtonLawHelp.org | Helpful information about the law in Washington. Or Washington State Courts - Court Forms - Protection Orders for more information on forms required to renew, modify, or terminate orders for protection.

- How to File:

The protection order office is currently accepting filings by email, in person or by mail. If your filing exceeds 25 pages you must file in person and provide your own copies. Bring your original for filing and 3 copies. Your filings must include party names and your case number. Filings must be single-sided.

- Email Filing: Subject line: Protection Order / Your Last Name / Case Number / Date of Hearing IMPORTANT: You must send your filing as an attached PDF FILE. For security reasons. We are unable to access all other file types. This includes attached or embedded image files. We cannot access attached photos of documents unless they are scanned as a PDF file.

Additionally, we are unable to access documents saved in your personal storage drive. Do not send links to files shared from your Google Drive, iCloud drive etc. We are not responsible for organizing your filing; please provide instruction and organize your PDF's accordingly. Email documents to exparte@kitsap.gov.

- File in Person: File in room 202 on the 2nd floor of Kitsap County Superior Court-614 Division St Port Orchard, WA 98366

- Submitting video/audio evidence: The Court may permit video/audio evidence to be presented at this type of hearing, but the Judge or Commissioner may also ask you to testify as to what is contained on the video/audio(s). If you choose to make the request and the judicial officer allows it, the Court will not provide a machine for you to play the video/audio(s). You will need to have the video-audio(s) on a flash drive and bring a laptop or similar device to play the videos. Please be prepared to share the audio/videos via the share screen feature in Zoom as that may be required depending on the physical location of all participants. You will need to have a copy to provide to the Clerk, which will be retained, and a copy to provide to the other side.

• Service of your documents to the other party is required.

You must have a copy of your filing served on the other party prior to the hearing. Service must be made by someone over the 18 who is not a party to the case. The server must fill out the Return of Service Form and file it with the court. The court may allow parties to exchange materials at the beginning of the calendar. Please note, the court prefers in person appearance. Appearing by zoom may cause a challenge for exchanging materials.

• Please Note: These instructions/information apply only to parties without a lawyer. If you plan to seek legal representation consult with them before responding. The filing instructions are ONLY for Kitsap Superior Court.

• It is recommended to have your response filed no later than 2 days prior to your scheduled hearing. A working copy will be provided to the judicial officer for consideration in the case. Filings received after 12:00pm the day before court may not be read or considered by the court due to untimely filing.

• Parties may submit supplemental information using the declaration form or cover sheet. This does need to be served to the other party.
