

Revision to a Residential Permit

Permit Number:

Description of the proposed revisions:

Revision Submittal Questions

1. Are the revisions clearly and accurately identified on the plans or addendum? YES NO
2. Does the proposed revision include site plan changes that modify the footprint, structure or driveway? YES NO
If yes, a revised site plan is required. If the footprint is increased or impacts the hard surface amount, a stormwater worksheet is required.
3. Does the proposed revision include changes to the construction plans? YES NO
If yes, revised plans are required. Please provide: construction plans, engineered plans, and/or engineered calculations as applicable to your project.
4. Does the proposed revision change the original bid price? YES NO  For remodel/mechanical plumbing permits only **
If yes, please provide the original and the revised bid price:

Original:	Revised:
-----------	----------
5. Does the proposed revision include new heated spaces or changes to the heating/ventilation? YES NO
If yes, a revised Energy Code Compliance Form is required.
6. Does the proposed revision alter the method of stormwater management? YES NO
If yes, a revised site plan and SWPPP drawing are required.

7. Does the proposed revision modify the square footage amounts on the project? YES NO

If yes, please provide the original and the revised square footage:

Example: Original - 600sqft attached garage, Revised - 950sqft attached garage + bathroom facilities

Original:

Revised:

8. Will the proposed revision square footages make the entirety of the structure 5,000 square feet or more? YES NO

If yes, please complete and submit updated fire flow brochure.